RNS MUN 2026 · DELEGATE ESSENTIALS · 06–07 OCTOBER 2026

Before you take the floor.

A one-page checklist from the official Conference Brochure and Code of Conduct.
If anything here differs from the official documents, they take priority.

WHEN & WHERE

— 6–7 October 2026, two days, offline.

— RNS Institute of Technology, Dr. Vishnuvardhan Road, Channasandra, RR Nagar, Bengaluru 560098.

— Metro: Rajarajeshwari Nagar. Rail: Kengeri (KGI). Bus: Channasandra – RR Nagar.

ELIGIBILITY

— Open to undergraduate and postgraduate students of a recognised college or university.

— You must be enrolled in your programme when you register. School students are not eligible.

INSTITUTIONAL DELEGATION

— 9 to 18 delegates, with at least one delegate in every committee.

— Only group registrations qualify for the Best Delegation award.

FEES

— RNSIT delegates: ₹999.

— External delegates: ₹1,199 early-bird, ₹1,349 regular.

— External IEEE members: ₹1,199.

— All payments are strictly non-refundable and non-transferable.

COMMITTEES

— UNSC · UNHRC · DISEC · Lok Sabha · UNODC · International Press Corps.

— Read your committee’s agenda and Rules of Procedure before day one.

DRESS CODE

— Formal Western or traditional formal attire suitable for a diplomatic conference.

BRING WITH YOU

— Your conference ID. Passes are for the person they are issued to.

— Your research and notes. Speeches and papers must be your own work.

— Your committee’s AI-use guidelines, as set by the Executive Board.

DO NOT BRING

— Alcohol or anything else restricted by the venue or college policy.

AWARDS

— Per committee: Best Delegate ₹8,000, High Commendation ₹5,000, Special Mention ₹3,000.

— IPC: Best Reporter ₹6,000, High Commendation ₹4,000.

— Best Delegation: ₹10,000 and a trophy.

Questions?

Email mun@rnsit.ac.in · Instagram rnsit.mun · mun.rnsit.ac.in